Una Exposición Bienal

INTERNATIONAL
CALL TO ARTISTS

The Latin Network for the Visual Arts (LNVA) invites Latin artists to submit artwork to be considered for LATIN VIEWS 2010: A Biennial Exhibition at the University of Connecticut, Alexey von Schlippe Gallery of Art. This 5th biennial juried exhibition celebrates the breadth and diversity of Latin fine art by contemporary artists whose roots lie in countries where the Romance languages are spoken, (Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, France, French Polynesia, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Italy, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Portugal, Puerto Rico, Romania, Spain, Uruguay, United States of America and Venezuela.)

The LNVA is a non-profit 501(c)(3) visual arts organization focused exclusively on Latin fine art. The exhibition will be held from September 10th to October 22nd, 2010 and includes cultural and educational programming. A full color, bilingual (English & Spanish) catalog is produced featuring images from the selected works of participating artists.

The application for Latin Views 2010: A Biennial Exhibition can be downloaded from the LNVA website. Applications must be submitted by March 31, 2010 to be considered.

APPLICATION GUIDELINES

The Latin Network for the Visual Arts, Inc., (LNVA) is a non-profit 501(c)(3) art organization whose mission is to enrich the community through the visual arts.

Established in 2003, the LNVA exhibits contemporary fine art ranging from the abstract to expressionism created by Latin artists whose roots lie in countries where the Romance languages are spoken.

Through its Latin Views biennial exhibitions, the LNVA has established its identity in the international art community; through a series of other innovative bilingual educational and cultural programs it has also developed a strong local presence, serving the community.

The LNVA is pleased to make its cultural and educational programs available at no cost to the community; LNVA projects are financed primarily by the generous contributions of private individuals, with additional funding coming from corporate matching funds, the support of businesses and philanthropic foundations.
